THE APPROACH TO GOD

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE & CANDLE LIGHTING “We Come, O Savior, to Thy Table”

Hugo Gehrke

*CALL TO WORSHIP

One: The beads are gone, the pancake batter used up, the last notes of jazz no longer lingering—

Many: Our Lenten journey has begun and we have taken but a few steps toward that city on a hill with a cross looming high above it.

One: This is a journey of reflection and contemplation, a journey which began in the ashes of last year's Hosannas,

Many: reminders that the journey doesn't always go the way we planned or end up where we hoped it would.

One: And yet we journey again this year because we believe it can be different, because we believe the destination is worth it,

Many: because we know, deep down, that the destination might just be the journey, and that the journey can change us.

One: So let our journey continue with the steps we take through worship this day as we join together to worship our God.

*HYMN “All Who Hunger, Gather Gladly”

purple #509

(Prayer request cards will be collected during the singing of this hymn)

*OPENING PRAYER

Many: We do hunger, O God, for your love, for your grace, and for the daily bread of blessing that you offer so freely to us all. And so as we begin this journey of wilderness and wandering, of restlessness and roaming, of loneliness and longing, we pray that we might feed on that bread which sustains both body and soul, that we might be nourished and renewed to continue on our Lenten journey, this day, this week, and this season ahead. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

*GLORIA PATRI

red #513

*Glory be to the Father,
And to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
World without end. Amen. Amen.*

CALL TO CONFESSION

One: "The journey of a thousand miles begins with one step," writes the Chinese philosopher Lao Tzu. Today we take the first step on our Lenten journey; so may it be one which turns us toward God in prayer . . . .

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Many: Holy God, we do turn to face you now in prayer, and yet we confess that we don't make this turn often enough, and even when we do, we don't always know what to say nor do we always believe that you are listening and ready to answer. Forgive us, we pray. And offer us that bread of blessing that you promise will give us all we need to journey a few steps further down this Lenten road. We pray this along with all the prayers we bring before you now, in this silence . . . .

SILENT CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

One: Like bread broken and offered freely, so is God's love and forgiveness offered generously. So let us feast on the gift it is and say: Thanks be to God!
